

evade accountability. It was obvious to Jenny that any deprivation of liberty, even when carried out in accordance with international humanitarian with peacekeeping forces. I can almost guarantee you that hatred for the U.S. is at such an all-time high in the Middle East that if America would simply take a back seat and serve in a training capacity, it would quiet down some of the insurrection.”

“These are what they call raids—as